SCIENCE - Arrington, Cox, Stallings

Please check Google Classroom for class information and updates! Email if you have any questions. Thanks!

SOCIAL STUDIES

Caiola

Our students are discovering the Great War 1914-1918. Life in the TRENCHES does not sound fun. We are also revamping and redesigning our binders for the second nine weeks. We are learning reading strategies for nonfiction text.

McMahan

We have just moved from the Progressive Age to Becoming A World Power. We will soon begin studying World War I. Please make sure your son or daughter is reading all of the assigned reading from the textbook.

Balance of PAL money is due by NOV. 5. All medicines are due to our nurse by Nov. 1.

Prosch

We just finished up our study of the U.S.' emergence as a world power, which will lead us into our next unit, World War I. We will be studying the causes, effects, battles, and the U.S.' involvement.

PAL announcements- This week I sent home information regarding medical information for PAL. As we get closer to our trip, please keep in mind that all medications must go through the nurse with the appropriate paperwork. The medication deadline for our session of PAL is November 7th. I also need registration papers and full payments by November 5th. Thank you for your cooperation with these deadlines. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions!

Spanish

Nivens

Capitals test in Spanish tomorrow for 5th period and Friday for 1st period!

Physical Education

Butler, Chambers, Jackson, and Trice

Students must bring their $5 Locker Rental Fee this week. They are to bring a lock from home. If you need to pay for your uniform please send that money in as well, $22 a set & $12 individual. If you need to order a uniform please go to Coach Trice's blog to access the order form.

Band - Rizzo

If you are not receiving band e-mails, please contact chmsbandboosters@gmail.com. Tell them your name, your child's name, and as many e-mail addresses you need to receive important information for your child. Besides your student, this is the primary method of communication between band and home. (This 6th grade newsletter will only have general information.)

Family and Consumer Science - Harris

Choir – Mandt

6th Grade wheel classes will be continuing their learning of basic musical concepts: Lines and Spaces, Note Values, etc... through various activities and assignments.

6th grade full-year choir will be continuing to improve on their music for the December 3rd Winter Concert at Liberty Baptist Church @ 7 PM.

Library/Media Specialist – Stafford and Rayl

Thank you for a fantastic book fair! We will do it again in the spring.

Mrs. Glausier's students visited the library Tuesday to check out a nonfiction book for their next book report which will be due November 15th.

Mrs. Campbell's students will visit the library Monday, October 29th. Please remember to return your books!

CHMS Counselors' Corner - Becnel, Hooks, Miller

Parents,

In the 3rd installment of the CHMS Counseling Department's helpful information for parents, we have included a movie of a PowerPoint presentation with information about Shelby County's Emotional Wellness campaign, called Shelby Cares. We expect Emotional Wellness to play a central part in the conversations we have in the years to come.

Reminders:

- Be certain to turn in a letter from your parents or physician any time you miss school. It must be submitted the day you return to school from an absence. Excuse letters are not accepted by the Registrar after three days from the absence.
- Cell phones should be powered off and in your bookbag if you must bring them to school unless they are being used for educational purposes under the supervision of your teacher.
- Student Agendas should be brought to school daily. Student Agendas are used as a Pass in the event it is necessary to leave the supervision of a teacher.
- Be certain that you know your lunch number so you will be able to key it in and keep the line moving in the cafeteria.
- Sixth grade students report to the Sixth Grade Gym each morning.
- Athletic wear as well as tights, leggings, jeggings, and tight pants that look like tights are not acceptable due to our dress code.
- SGA is sponsoring a pumpkin painting contest for Halloween. Pick up a flier in the office for more details.
- Flu shots will be given at school for students on October 17,. Forms will come home as soon as we have them. YOUR STUDENT WILL HAVE TO HAVE A COMPLETED FORM WITH SIGNATURE IN ORDER TO PARTICIPATE IN THE FLU SHOT CLINIC AT SCHOOL. Please contact the school nurse if you have any questions.

- Congratulations to the following eight members who scored the highest and will be asked to represent Chelsea Middle School for the Sixth Grade Scholar's Bowl:
 - Adah Graves
